House Description

One's first impression when entering the Madison is one of elegance and grandeur. From the foyer, you're led into an architecturally dramatic great room that's flooded with sunlight by large windows and 16 foot tray ceilings. To the left is a formal dining room and den/study. The kitchen is a chef's dream and the breakfast nook has mitered glass with a built-in niche. Designed for comfort and luxury the master suite has his and her closets, 16 feet tray ceilings and a master bath with garden tub and glass enclosed walk-in shower. Family members or guests enjoy two additional bedrooms with a private bath.
